CAMBRIDGE LATIN TOPS ARLINGTON HIGH QUINTET IN SURPRISING UPSET

The Arlington High basketball team met its third defeat of the season yesterday afternoon when Cambridge Latin took them to the tune of 31 to 12. Arlington scored only one point in the last two periods.

Arlington had previously defeated this same Cambridge team very decisively in the local gym, so that the loss came somewhat as an upset. Any hopes that Arlington had of being invited to the Tech Tournament are now gone and the best they can hope for is a fair season.

Seretto with five points was high scorer and the outstanding star of the game. Wright was away off and missed many chances to score. Kishkiss, high scorer for Latin, made all his points in the last half.

The two teams were tied fourteen all at the end of the half.

Milk Dealers To Talk About Future Plans

The greatest need of dairy farmers is an assured price for their milk. Among local farmers there is a constant dread of a break in milk prices with consequent returns under production costs. They know that the temporary contracts between the Governor's Milk Board and dealers have expired. The market is wide open. The question is, "When is New England Dairies Inc." going to function? This organization has secured a loan from the Federal Farm Board, to enable it to complete negotiations for purchase of proprietary creameries. Progress is being made. The Massachusetts farmer wants to know what part he is to play in this organization. The protection of secondary markets is vital to him.

These questions will be answered by Howard W. Selby, General Manager, New England Dairies, Inc. in his talk on "The Plan and Progress of New England Dairies, Inc." at a meeting of the Middlesex Dairy Farmers, Inc. Town Hall, Acton Centre, Wednesday evening, February 8, at 8 o'clock.

Harvey W. Turner, President, Massachusetts Dairymen's Association will speak on the work of that organization. A committee appointed at the Annual Meeting in Worcester has been meeting with a committee of the New England Milk Producers' Association and the General Manager, New England Dairies, Inc. The progress of this committee will be told by Mr. Turner.

The inspection requirements of the Milk Regulation Board will be outlined by J. C. Cort, Chief, Division of Dairying, Massachusetts Department of Agriculture.

As Hitler's Star Was Rising

Made only last week, this picture is the most recent of Adolf Hitler, new German Chancellor, to reach the United States. The Nazi chieftain is shown with his followers as they attended the unveiling of the tombstone over the grave of Horst Wessel, one of Hitler's "Brown-Shirts" who was killed in a factional fight with Communists. When the picture was made, Hitler little dreamed that the goal of his long climb to power was but one week away.

An alarm at 2 o'clock brought several pieces of apparatus to the scene and a second alarm was sounded calling help from Somerville. The blaze gained quick headway and all out was not sounded until 4.33 a. m.

The cause of the blaze, which ate from the second floor through the roof, and for a time seemed to endanger surrounding structures, was a mystery to Arlington firemen.

Chairman Charles M. Sawyer Outlines Plans For Campaign and Urges Committee Members To Work Toward Election of Candidates — Ex- plains How Candidates Were Chosen—Intro- duces Several Candidates—Committee To Meet Again Next Week—Little Excitement In Evi- dence Last Night

At an unusually quiet meeting held in its new headquarters in Arlington Centre, last night the Citizens' Committee launched its campaign to put over a winning slate in the coming town election. About one hundred were present.

Presiding over the meeting, Charles M. Sawyer, chairman of the Citizens' Committee struck the keynote of the campaign when he told those present that "they were out to work to elect Citizens' Committee candidates."

Chairman Sawyer outlined plans for the campaign and the precinct meetings to be held in the near future.

In answer to the criticisms which have been hurled at the Committee because of its method of choosing candidates, Mr. Sawyer explained briefly how the candidates endorsed by the committee were selected. He said that the directors at full meetings had the names of all persons seeking office, along with their qualifications and vote-getting ability. All candidates were fully and freely discussed at these directors' meetings. In accordance with the by-laws of the Committee, the name of one person for each office was approved by the directors and was later offered to the Committee for discussion along with other names that might be presented. These names were voted upon by the Committee and now are being endorsed for election.

Any fireworks which might have been expected at last night's opening meeting failed to materialize and at least one member of the Committee expressed disappointment at the lack of much excitement.

"It's now up to you to go out and advertise our candidates," Mr. Sawyer urged his listeners. He then introduced various candidates whom the Committee is endorsing.

Introduced by the Chairman, J. William Fellows, who heads the ticket as candidate for selectman, said "We have a real scrap on our hands according to the local press and we'll have to co-operate and work hard to win next March." Referring to Mr. Fellows, the chairman said, "Our candidate for selectman is not tied down to any one group or faction."

Arthur W. Sampson, candidate for the board of public works, was introduced and thanked the Committee for endorsing him in this campaign. Clarence A. Moore, running for re-election as Assessor, said it was gratifying to see the confidence which the Committee placed in him. Edward A. Bailey, Tax Collector who will again seek re-election pointed out that he had held the office twenty years and during that time there was a contest for the office only once when the old fashion caucus was in vogue. "I can't conceive of anyone being eager for the job today," he said. Charles A. Hardy, candidate for re-election as treasurer, thanked the Committee for endorsing his name. John H. Wilson, candidate for park commissioner thanked the Committee and promised to do his utmost to fulfill the duties of the office if elected.

The committee will again meet at its headquarters next week, it was announced last night.

The Committee is composed of the following officers and precinct directors:

Charles M. Sawyer, 39 Highland avenue, chairman; Fred S. Douglas, 14 Plymouth street and Mrs. Charles A. Alden, 61 Rangeley road, vice chairmen; Ernest Hestellette, Jr., 38 Russell street; Harry E. Baker, 95 Menotomy road, treasurer.

Directors: Precinct 1, J. S. Kelley, 27 Cleveland street; Precinct 2, John H. Wilson, 63 Milton street; Precinct 3, M. Ernest Moore, 361 Massachusetts avenue; Precinct 4, Earle C. Hopkins, 7 Randolph street; Precinct 5, Sven A. Lawson, 20 Amherst street; Precinct 6, George King Rugg, 44 Kensington road; Precinct 7, Michael A. Fredo, 9 Webster street; Precinct 8, Roderick J. Loud, 35 Menotomy road; Precinct 13, Donald W. Black, 7 Park avenue, North and Precinct 14, Edward L. Shinn, 74 Florence avenue.

To Be Taken At Face Value

When you pick up this newspaper and read the announcements of our local merchants, or those of national advertisers, you need never think to question the sincerity and honesty of their statements.

This reliance on Advertising has been brought about by Advertising, and is one of Advertising's greatest contributions to the satisfaction and ease of modern living.

An advertiser deliberately attempting to deceive takes the quick, short road to ruin. The insincere or extravagant statement may have its brief day. But the greater the attention it attracts, the sooner the public will discover and destroy its deceit.

The cornerstone of successful shopkeeping always has been "keep faith with the public," give honest values and truthfully represent the merchandise and its service. This principal had to find its expression in Advertising—for Advertising is nothing more than the owner of the store or a factory talking with people in their homes about such things as shoes and soap, radios and rugs, blankets and bloomers.

It pays to read the advertisements. They are first-hand news of what is being invented, fashioned, and perfected in the workshops of the world for your well-being, comfort and convenience.

PRaises Schools For PARTICIPATION IN GEO. WASHINGTON OBSERVANCES

Superintendent of Schools J. Stevens Kadosh has received from Representative Sol Bloom, associate director of the United States Commission on the Celebration of the 100th Anniversary of the Birth of George Washington, a letter highly commending the part which the Medford public schools took during the past year in the observances of the occasion.

In part, Congressman Bloom says: "We wish to acknowledge receipt of your outstanding program for the George Washington Bicentennial Celebration which was conducted in the Medford Public Schools. It has been a great pleasure to examine this interesting report which shows that a 'George Washington Bicentennial' has been permeated throughout the entire city system."

We wish to congratulate your Bicentennial Committee upon the definite program which was formulated and developed, and the many original activities which were introduced. Through the influence of this work we feel certain that the students have a better understanding of the life of George Washington and the founders of our Nation, and that this interest will not terminate with the celebration.

In the reports from the various departments, reference is made to certain publications, articles, and records which we should like to include with your report in the permanent files. If your Committee can furnish these as well as pictures of different projects we would appreciate having them.

The vast amount of historical research which has been done in the schools throughout the Nation during the Bicentennial year will be of untold worth to the students in the future. The part you and your Bicentennial Committee played in emphasizing the significance of the Bicentennial Celebration is appreciated.

Assuring you our sincere thanks and continuing interest in the work that you have done and of our desire to be of service during the continuation of the Commission, I am

Very sincerely yours,
Sol Bloom
Associate Director.

Bill To Establish Commissioners In Cities and Towns

A bill to establish commissary departments in cities and towns and to prohibit cash payments for the purchase of food or other commodities by applicants for poor relief was introduced yesterday before the Legislative Committee on Public Welfare by the petitioner, Representative Clarence S. Luitwiler of Newton.

The bill was not opposed by any speaker. Representative Luitwiler said, "Under this bill no one need go hungry or without shelter. No one would lose his self-respect. The amount of cash paid out to one person would, under this plan, take care of at least two persons."

This measure would take welfare work out of politics. There is no politics in giving the people sufficient nourishment to keep them well off in supplying them with clothing and heat to withstand the rigors of winter. Contrasting food, clothing and other supplies should be framed to allow anyone to bid and thus out out "favorite" bidders. This bill attempts to do.

"What has been successfully accomplished in Fall River shows beyond all doubt that the scheme is not only feasible but has proved itself to be beneficial to the health and well-being of the community. Under this proposal at least 25 percent of the money now spent could be saved."

Mayor Speaks On Legislative Procedure

In his radio address delivered Monday evening, Mayor Burke spoke on the third part of his program for 1933, which he recommended to the Board of Aldermen on January 3, 1933 when he submitted his annual report. The Mayor went into details of the legislative program for the City of Medford and the procedure of entering proposed legislation which should be of interest to any citizen desirous of entering a petition.

The Mayor's address follows:— "Tonight I am going to speak about the third part of the program for 1933 that I recommended to the Board of Aldermen on January 3rd of this year, when I submitted my annual report."

The part of the program I refer to is the legislative program for the City of Medford. The City of Medford is governed by ordinances set up by the Board of Aldermen and statutes passed by the Legislature. The Massachusetts Legislature is composed of a House and a Senate, elected by the people from various districts throughout the Commonwealth. Medford is represented in the Massachusetts Senate by the Honorable Charles C. Warren of Arlington, and in the House of Representatives by Honorable John Irwin, Arthur Youngman and Donald Stinger, all of Medford. These men represent the people of Medford in all matters pertaining to State Legislation and expenditures.

The procedure of entering legislation is by petition. And citizens may petition the Massachusetts Legislature to pass a law. However, the entering of a petition is only the beginning of the course that legislation must take before it is enacted into law. Petitions are submitted with the bill. The bill is then given a number and referred to a committee of the legislature composed of Senators and Representatives. The committee that has the bill before it gets a date for a public hearing before the committee, where all those in favor of the bill may appear before the committee and give their reasons for favoring the bill. Those opposing the bill may do likewise.

After the bill is heard by the committee it is reported to the body which entered the bill. If it is a Senate bill it is reported to the Senate. If it is a House bill it is reported to the House. If one branch approves and the other disapproves, then the legislation stops right there. If, however, it is approved by both the House and the Senate, it then goes to the Governor for his signature. If the Governor does not sign it, it is then sent back to the House and Senate and must receive the endorsement of two thirds of its members in both branches before it may become law. If it does not receive two thirds of the membership of both the House and the Senate, then it does not become law.

On some occasions the Governor veto the legislation as passed, but puts a proviso in the recommendation that if the House and the Senate amend the bill to meet his recommendations, he will then sign it and it becomes law after the recommendation is adopted. Frequent recommendations of the Governor are that legislation effecting cities shall be accepted only upon a referendum of the people of the City that the legislature is to effect. When the referendum vote is taken in the city, generally at the Massachusetts Election held in the City, it becomes law.

Now the legislative program of the City of Medford of this year has been endorsed by the Board of Aldermen and has been submitted by me to the general court through Representative Arthur Youngman, who represents Medford.

The bill that affects Medford, that have been approved by the Board of Aldermen, are known as House No. 355, 351, and 351. There is one other bill however, that is not approved by the Board of Aldermen, but approved by the Water and Sewer Department, under whose jurisdiction the purpose of the bill will be carried out, and that is House No. 456. It has the approval of both of these bodies within the city.

Before I speak on the merits of this legislative program of the city itself, I want to refer casually to other bills that have been introduced seeking to place regulations and restrictions upon the city. These bills have been entered by private citizens and have not received the consideration or the endorsement of either the Executive or Legislative branches of the Government in the City of Medford, with the exception of the only other bill that the City is directly interested in is the bill to require prospective members of the Police Department to be marked in marksmanship in their Civil Service examination when seeking the position of policeman in any city or town in the Commonwealth.

The first bill, House No. 350 has been entered because of the fact that when a vacancy occurs in the Board of Aldermen in the City of Medford, if it is a vacancy caused by a Ward Alderman, the cost of election is approximately $1200. If it is a vacancy caused by an Alderman at Large, then the cost of filling that position would be approximately the same cost as City Election, because all of the polling places in the City would have to be open and the same number of election officers would probably be required. Under this bill it provides for the filling of a vacancy from any cause in the membership of the Board of Aldermen in the City, by the Board of Aldermen, which would be held at a special meeting where candidates would be nominated and elected by the Board of Aldermen. I feel that this bill should receive the endorsement of the people of the City and of the Massachusetts Legislature as a matter of economy.

The next bill, House No. 351 is a bill to establish the office of Commissioner of Public Works. This very same bill was entered in the legislature in 1927. It was referred to the Massachusetts Annual Session that year. I brought this very bill before the Board of Aldermen in 1927 and tried to get the endorsement of the body at that time. The special committee that brought in a report to the Board in December, 1932, recommended the establishment of a Public Works Department within the City.

I believe that this bill if adopted by the legislature, will mean the savings of money to the taxpayers of the City, and will mean that a more efficient service will be rendered to the general public for the money now expended under the present arrangement.

The next bill, House No. 351 is the bill that I spoke at length to you about some time ago. The bill is the one that requests the legislature to allow the city of Medford to refund or reimburse the bonded or the funded indebtedness of the City, to provide the city with the next fifteen years. It also provides that the City of Medford shall not borrow more than ten percent of its municipal budget in bond issues in any one year. If the legislature sees fit to pass this authorization, I am sure that the money saved can be applied to revaluation within the City of Medford and will mean the load a little easier for the average taxpayer to carry.

The fourth and last bill is House No. 456, which is to authorize the transfer of the control of Wright's Pond from the jurisdiction of the Water and Sewer Department to the Park Department. If this authorization is granted the City may, under the jurisdiction of the Park Department, develop this area into a park that will be a haven for the children and the mothers of Medford, to go to in the summer days. Under the present arrangement, it is unfair to the water user to be compelled to pay for the supervision of this recreation area through their water bill. This completes the authorized legislative program of the City. There are many other bills before the legislature this year that are of direct benefit to the taxpayer of the City of Medford.

One of these bills is the authorization of the payment of taxes in quarterly installments without interest. No words that I might say could express the benefit that might be derived if this bill were enacted into law. It may seem, to the ordinary person within the City of Medford, that the City itself has jurisdiction over the matter of taxation.

The matter of Taxation, valuation and collection of taxes on property within the confines of the City of Medford are set up by the legislature in the general laws. No officer in the City of Medford, including the Mayor, may disregard the rules made up by the legislature in regards to these matters. However, at this time, I feel that no man made law could be enacted that would provide for the governing of affairs in the matter of taxation in the years 1933 and 1934.

Tomorrow morning I am issuing an order to the City Collector of the City of Medford that he accept any amount of money that a person in the City of Medford wishes to pay on their 1932 tax bill. I have hesitated a long time before I have issued this order, but I feel that if the legislature wants to change the present requirements of 25 per cent, it is now in session and has the opportunity to do so. The bulletin issued by the general court referring to the business of the legislature issued on Monday, January 23rd does not set the date for hearing on these bills, but as soon as the bulletin sets the date for hearing on these matters, I shall announce the date over this station and through the local press, and I hope that all of the people who favor this legislative program will either write or personally inform their representative or senator and also the committee which will hear the bill.

Hoover Dam Is
Year Ahead
Of Schedule

San Francisco.—Approximately $27,500,000 has been expended to date on the $165,000,000 Hoover Dam on the Colorado River, and construction is almost a year ahead of schedule, the Bank of America reports in its weekly summary of far-Western business. Entailing an additional expenditure of $39,160,000 up to June, 1934, the work will advance shortly from preparatory to major structural operations, necessitating extensive use of steel, cement, machinery and other equipment.

Starting in July or August, a thirty months' program of pouring concrete on the dam, about two city blocks thick at the base, will lay enough concrete to construct a highway twenty feet wide, from New York to El Paso. This dam will impound water equivalent to 5000 gallons for every inhabitant in the world. Recently the Colorado River was diverted through two Arisann tunnels. Two other tunnels, located in Nevada are to be completed before the spring run-off.

Senator James G. Moran appeared before the Legislative Committee on Highways and Motor Vehicles to support his bill providing that the Governor, members of the Council and the General Court be furnished with "distinctive number plates." He said members of the Massachusetts Legislature receive fewer privileges than any similar body and should be given some form of recognition.

The bill was favored by Dr. Baker, representing the Auto Owners' League.

Deglane Will Meet George For Title

Henri Deglane, world's heavy-weight wrestling champion, will defend his title in a finish match, best two in three falls, under the auspices of the Massachusetts Veterans of Foreign Wars at the Boston Garden, Feb. 10th. His opponent will be Ed Don George, former title holder, and the signing of Deglane on Monday by Matchmaker Alex MacLean clinched a bout that has been brewing ever since their memorable battle at Hearts Field.

Simultaneously with the announcement that the bout had been clinched, Commander Peter W. Pate notified all the posts in Massachusetts to get behind the sports carnival and dispose of the bonds sent them which can be redeemed in tickets. Commander Pate also announced that it will be first come, first served to the bond holders and they have been urged to cash in early so that they will get desirable locations, for he predicts a crowd that will compare with the one at the Garden when Deglane and Sonnenberg met.

No sooner had the ink dried on the contract signed by champion Deglane, than the latter went to the gymnasium where he works daily. He announced that he is in such shape that he will do little heavy work previous to the bout. MacLean has urged him to appear in public training, but the Frenchman has his own ideas on what he wants to do to prepare for the bout and will do just about as he pleases.

MacLean announced that George expects to be back in Boston on or about Feb. 5th when it is expected that he will work in public. George also is in the peak of his physical condition as was evidenced in his bout with Jim Browning at the last Garden show. Just what his future plans will be remain to be seen.

Both of these grapplers always are in superb condition and it should take only light work to keep them in fit condition.

Matchmaker MacLean is angling for the services of the colorful Nick Lutz and Bob "Bibber" McCoy, Holy Cross, to meet in the semi-windup and expects to close the deal in a day or two.

Spirited Hearing On Proposals To Remove Mayors

One of the most spirited hearings at the State House yesterday was that before the Legislative Committee on Judiciary on the petition of Harry Marcus and others that the Justices of the Superior Court ask the Governor to grant the power to remove from office the Mayor of a city.

Harry J. Dixon, counsel for the Massachusetts Real Estate Owners' Association, said that in olden times Mayors held office for one year and valued the position more for the honor than the emolument. He said that with the longer term taxpayers are helped in case a Mayor proves incompetent or dishonest.

In answer to a question of Senator J. Bradford Davis of Haverhill, Senate chairman of the committee, Mr. Dixon said he did not think any citizen or group of citizens would deliberately harm a Mayor.

Alexander Whitehead and John C. L. Downing spoke for the bill. Mr. Downing said that when you elect a Mayor for four years you have made him an autocrat, with a carte blanche order on the city treasury and absolute control over the city employed. No honest Mayor, said Mr. Downing, need fear the provisions of the proposed measure.

Representative Albert E. Morris of Everett attacked Mayor Michael C. O'Neill of that city. He admitted that Mayor O'Neill had been re-elected and declared that that fact was a reason why the petition should be approved.

L. W. Houston of Somerville favored the petition because, he said, that even with a one-year term it did not consider the people "intelligent enough to vote or know what they are voting for."

William M. Connors of Boston, after criticizing the committee for its failure to open the hearings at the scheduled time, scored Mayor Curley.

Edward M. Schenberg favored the bill which was opposed by Mrs. Frank W. Page.

It was decided that the following committees would take charge: Hall—Ralph Lovings; Orchestra—Marjorie Jackson; Lorraine Driscoll and John McGinn; Printing—William Warren, Henry Lurinsky; Chaperones—Helen Colwell; Refreshments—Lorraine Driscoll and Helen Colwell; Flowers—Ellen Bonar and Edna Blackett; Junior Usher—Louis Rocco, Marjorie Jackson and Ernest Rocco.

This old illusion is dependent for success on a simple scientific principle. Attached to each of the performer's shoes is a rubber "sucker" or disc which creates a vacuum and adheres to the board—supporting the "human fly's" weight.

UNDER-CONSUMPTION

Under-consumption of the necessities of life rather than over-production is given as one of the reasons for present difficulties, according to the Trinidad Guardian, published in the British West Indies. Things which people could do without have replaced the staples of modern life to the injury of the producers of grain and wheat. The writer quoted says:

"The more I see of advertising the more I am convinced that we know nothing about it.

"We build up a world boom by advertising luxuries we could do without; then when the luxuries were doing all the business there was a slump in primary commodities. Naturally and logically. Everyone was buying luxuries and was learning to do without primary products.

"The girls smoked cigarettes instead of eating sugar candy and chocolate; they gave up bread for rusks; they began to use artificial silk instead of wool and cotton and flannel; we used electricity instead of coal; we learned to eat canned goods instead of village produce. Thousands of people acquired a taste for canned milk instead of fresh.

"What did primary products do? Instead of advertising their way to success too, they cried overproduction. Overproduction is only a child's way of saying 'no buyers'.

"Look around and see who advertises least. It is the producer of primary products every time. They got the idea that they were indispensable and when they found they were not, they sat down, and wept instead of taking a course in salesmanship.

"Fortunes used to be made out of land and farming. The farmer was the one-man shop in the one-horse town. Everybody had to go to him or starve. Nowadays instead of going to the farmer it is easier to buy canned food; luxuries advertised by middlemen or importers. The farmer sits around and wonders where his customers have gone.

"We can do without bread, cocoa, sugar, potatoes and practically all of the fresh product there is. But the producers 'kid' themselves that we can't. They blame economics and overproduction for lack of sale. If they advertised and marketed like everybody else, they would not get left in the rush.

"When the primary producers learn to keep pace in their advertising with the producers of luxury goods, the world will get balanced again. So long as the primary producers don't get together and advertise so long will they tell a hard luck tale. And so long will the world slump, because, though we all like luxuries, we can only buy them so long as enough of us earn the right to do it by selling the fruits of the sweat of our brow. AND THOSE WHO SWEAT MUST LEARN TO SELL!"—Daily News, Orange, Cal.

FINANCIAL INDEPENDENCE WEEK

Careful plans are now being laid to insure the success of Financial Independence Week, to be held next spring.

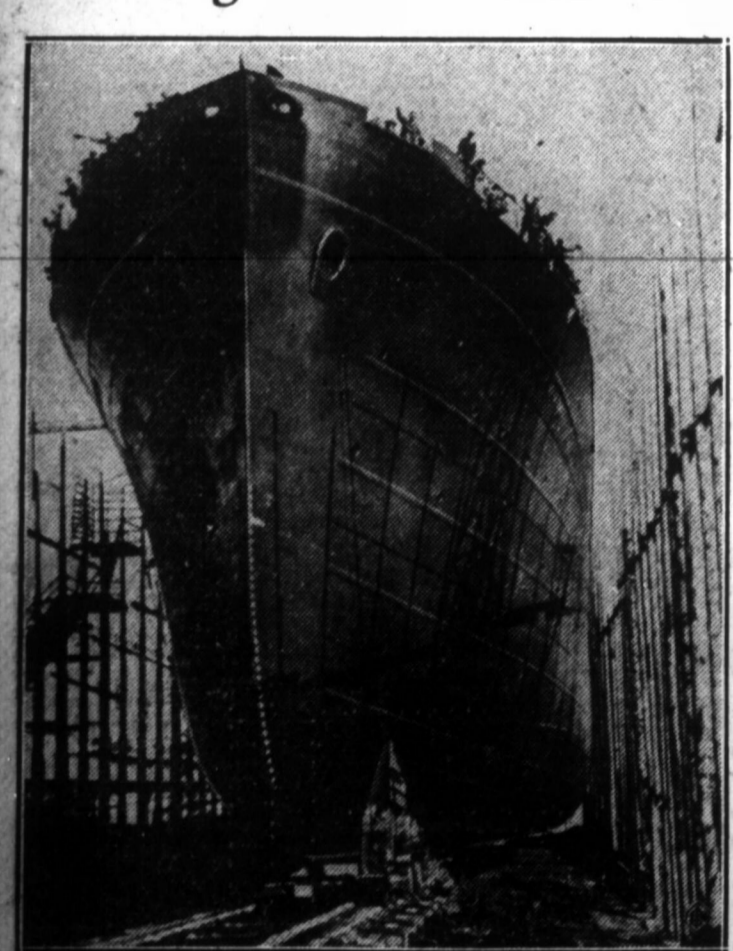

The Week is to be national in scope, and some 300 life insurance companies will participate in its observance. In purpose, it represents a practical and extremely desirable ideal for America—ultimate economic independence for all our people. Present conditions have made the Week particularly timely, inasmuch as we are realizing, to a degree unprecedented in our lives, the need for making proper provision against the exigencies and emergencies of the future.

As a matter of fact, many millions of our people have already made a splendid start toward financial independence, through the purchase of life insurance.

During the Week they will have a chance to gain a new and intensified idea of the value of their policies, and a new attitude toward investments. They will be told that a policy in an old line company is the only investment that has managed to survive the disasters of the last few years without losing value—they will be told, indeed, that life insurance represents the ultimate in safety, security and stability. And they can believe those statements, for they are demonstrably true.

All success to Financial Independence Week—and may it achieve its purpose!

Welcome Jean

Dear Daddy Sunshine:

I would like to join your club and I would appreciate it very much if you would send me a pin. I am sick with the grippe now, and I would not be able to get down to the office to get one. But, I've been down a lot of other times. I am 11 1-2. I was born on a Monday, on May 23, 1921. I go to the Davenport school and I am in the sixth grade. I know Verna Lake very well. She lives right across the street from us. I will try to keep your rules truly, and I will write as many letters as long as my stamps last. Ha! Ha! Well I must close.

Yours truly,

Jean Cox,
51 Russell street,
Medford, Mass.

You are indeed very welcome in the club Jean. Thanks a lot for your interesting letter. Sorry, but we are all out of pins, Jean, and from the looks of things will be for quite some time. However when the pins arrive an announcement will be published in the column.

Bills To Reduce Interest On Delinquent Taxes Urged At Hearing

Seven bills, designed to relieve delinquent taxpayers of additional interest charges levied by municipalities, were heard yesterday before the Legislative Committee on Taxation. Some of the bills sought to reduce interest on delinquent taxes to 5 percent, others to abolish step increases so that such interest shall not exceed 6 percent and one to reduce in Worcester interest on delinquent taxes to 4 percent.

The committee was warned by Henry F. Long, State Commissioner of Corporations and Taxation, not to act hastily. He said the proposals were "impractical in relation to the problem as a whole."

On the other hand, the committee was informed by Senator Charles A. Stevens, Lowell, R. A. Cutter, Boston Real Estate Exchange, and Judge Michael H. Sullivan, representing the Boston Five Cents Savings Bank, that there has been a complete reversal in the attitude toward interest on delinquent taxes. Senator Stevens said he was opposed to reduction a year ago but now believes in doing away with the 8-percent interest charge to relieve the taxpayer.

A number of legislators spoke in favor of limiting interest charges to 6 percent.

Medford Owned Craft Ashore At Cohasset

Cohasset—The 38-foot fishing schooner 906C, owned by William Whicker of 377 Fellsway, Medford, which ran ashore in Kimballs Cove early yesterday morning with two men on board, was floated in the afternoon by Capt. George A. Joseph and a crew of Coast Guardsmen from the Stony Beach Station, Hull.

The schooner was taken in tow by Arthur A. Wood and drawn to Cohasset Harbor, where it will be repaired. The ship, without gasoline, had been adrift for some time before it was washed upon the rocky shore in the cove. Auguste Wehrman, 34, of Hanover street, Boston, and Gerhard L. Klingsberg, 26, of Water street, Charlestown, who were on board, were cared for at the home of Mr. Wood, who later took the rescued craft in tow. Damage was slight.

Proposal Made To Limit Juries To Unemployed

The Legislative Committee on Judiciary held a hearing yesterday afternoon on two proposals to restrict the selection of jurors to unemployed citizens.

Under a bill of Representative Daniel J. Honan of Winthrop and William P. Grant of Fall River, no person at the time occupied in gainful employment shall be eligible to be drawn for jury duty.

Another bill was that of Representative Ralph V. Clampt of Springfield to give the Governor authority to declare an emergency to be in existence and to under none but unemployed to serve on juries.

Representative Julius M. Sobie of Boston, a member of the committee, questioned whether the ends of justice would be satisfied by the passage of such legislation. He said the basic principle of the jury system is to grant a man trial by a jury of his peers. He said he doubted if a jury of unemployed would be generally acceptable as a body of peers.

Advocates Aid For Closed Banks

A bill to allow banks to take over certain assets of other banks which have been closed, was urged by Senator Henry Parkman of Boston before the Legislative Committee on Banks and Banking yesterday. He said a petition is now before the Supreme Court affecting the Lawrence Trust Company, which awaits the passage of such legislation. F. J. Bonner, special liquidating counsel for Bank Commissioner Arthur Guy, favored the bill.

A bill to legalize certain railroad bonds as investments for savings banks and savings departments was also urged by Senator Parkman.

The Springfield Home Owners' Association asked passage of its bill on first mortgages held by banks, credit unions and insurance companies in order to relieve home owners from foreclosure.

A bill to limit the profit made by banks on real estate loans to 1 percent was advocated by William A. Davenport of Springfield. Senator Langone argued for a bill providing that fee and expenses of liquidating closed banks be borne by the Commonwealth.

ENTERTAINS AT WHIST

Mrs. Mary L. Adcock entertained a number of friends at a whist party held at her home at 799 Fellsway. The guests included members of the Medford Grange. Prizes were awarded to the winners late in the evening and a collation was served by the hostess. An enjoyable evening was spent by all.

—James Kelley of 67 Yeomans avenue is confined to his home with illness.

TO MOTHERS whose children won't EAT

Nature knows best. Never coax a child to eat! Remove the cause of a youngster's poor appetite. When appetite fails, tongue is coated white, eyes are a bilious yellow, don't give small children a constipating cathartic that drains the system. California syrup of figs is all the "medicine" they require.

Specialists will tell you that a sluggish appetite almost always means the child has a sluggish colon. Correct this condition called stasis, and see how quickly a listless, drooping boy or girl begins to eat—and gain! The only "medicine" such children seem to need is pure, unadulterated fig syrup.

Children who get syrup of figs, now and then, soon have the appetite and energy of young animals! They keep well and avoid colds and sluggish spells. Nature never made a finer laxative for children; and they all love the wholesome, fruity flavor of the real California syrup of figs. It's purely vegetable, but every druggist has it all bottled, with directions. Begin with it at once. The very next day, your child will be eating better and feeling better. Keep on with the syrup of figs a few days and see amazing improvement in appetite, color, weight, and spirits.

The promises made by the bottlers of California Syrup of Figs are true, and it will do the same for you, IF it's genuine CALIFORNIA. Don't accept substitutes.

County Talk On Wayside Stands

Food is a great deal like a speech. It is not so much what you say, as how you say it. Satisfied customers will come back again; no form of advertising is more effective than the recommendation of such a person.

All phases of the operation of wayside stands will be discussed at two all day meetings. These are held at Concord, Middlesex County Extension Service Office, 19 Everett street, February 3—10.30 a. m. to 3.30 p. m.

These meetings are free of charge and open to the public. By wayside stands we mean, a place where lunches or meals are served, although fruits, vegetables and other products may also be sold. You may bring a box lunch or get your lunch in Concord.

Making a place attractive, keeping it sanitary, buying food, menu planning, fixing prices and advertising are some of the questions discussed by Mrs. Harriet J. Haynes, home management specialist from the Massachusetts State College.

Mrs. Haynes is one who knows through experience the problems of the operator of a stand or tea room. Her suggestions will be most practical. Two meetings on tea rooms will be held later in March and April.

Belmont

William Roger Greeley was elected moderator at the annual meeting of the First Parish Unitarian Church. The other officers were Robert S. Sturtevant, clerk; Hubert V. Corryell and Philip M. Clark, parish committee; Mrs. Ruth Crone, treasurer; Charles H. Rudd and James W. Smith, auditors; and Lester T. Redman and Errol H. Locke, community service committee.

Edward C. Stone, one of the original incorporators of the local Cooperative Bank has tendered his resignation as a member of the board of directors. Robert P. Trask has been elected to fill the vacancy.

The choir of St. Bridget's Church and Church of the Redeemer (Episcopal), and the Community Chorus, under the direction of Clarence E. Briggs, will take part in the choral festival which is being planned by the American Festival and Choral Alliance at the Boston Opera House Sunday afternoon, Feb. 27.

Monday afternoon in the clubhouse on Pleasant street the members of the Woman's Club enjoyed a current events lecture by Mrs. Claude U. Gilson. These lectures have heretofore been held in Payson Hall, but from now on as the lectures are announced they will be held in the clubhouse.

The first session of the registrars of voters prior to the annual town elections will be held Thursday in St. Andrew's church on Marlboro street from 2.30 to 5 and 7 to 9 p. m. In addition to the dates announced, registrations can be made any day at the town clerk's office during the regular office hours.

The members of the Belmont-Teachers' Club have voted to establish a relief fund for needy teachers in the local school system.

Recently the local Unemployment Relief Committee established a workshop in the Roger Wellington School, where men of all callings can do work that comes, such as repairs and new articles of furniture. This has proved a big success, and the workshop is now doing a very good business.

Demand Service Charge Be Abolished and Talk Public Ownership

Sixteen bills to prohibit the use of service charges by gas and electric companies were considered at a public hearing held Monday at the State House by the Legislative Committee on Power and Light. The principal contention of the proponents was that the service charges were "unfair, unnecessary, unwarranted and unjust." They pointed to the number of bills as indicating the increased demand for the proposed legislation and characterized it as "the handwriting on the wall."

Michael J. O'Leary of Boston, who described himself as the pioneer in the fight to abolish the charges, warned the committee that failure to pass at least one of the measures would result in the question being placed on the ballot and consideration given to public ownership of the gas and electric companies of the Commonwealth. "I predict," Mr. O'Leary declared, "that if the Legislature fails to act this matter will be placed on the ballot and public ownership will result."

Representatives of the Boston Consolidated Gas, Massachusetts Electric and Gas Association; Association of Massachusetts and Municipal Lighting Association appeared in opposition to the bills.

Trojans Win One, Then Lose To Falcons

The Trojans first five mopped up the West Medford Hoboes yesterday in a close game, 42-36. The heavy scoring of Macklin and Rinfret, Trojan center and right back respectively, scoring 27 points between them, was spectacular in the Trojan's victory.

Crowley, Orden and Campbell played well for the Hoboes.

In another game the Trojans were badly beaten by the Falcons, 39-10. Stewart with 16 points and Fitzpatrick, hanging up a grand total of 15 points, were too much for the Trojans to stop. An injury to A. Rinfret which kept him from the game for the fourth period, was a heavy loss to the Trojans. The summaries:

Dry Agents Get 1000 Gallon Still At Burlington

Prohibition agents went to Burlington yesterday morning and raided a barn at Lowell and Winn streets, where they seized a 1000-gallon still, 600 gallons of mash, 200 bags of sugar, pump, electric machinery and other material, allegedly used in the manufacture of liquor.

John Gonsalves and Joseph Poldon, who were found in the barn, were arrested.

The first named is alleged to be the owner of the place, and the second is alleged to have been interested in running the plant.

MEDFORD LOCALS

Kenneth Cuneo of Early avenue, a student at Holy Cross college, spent the weekend at his home after competing in the track games at the Boston Gardens on Saturday evening.

William Collins of Ridge-way road, has returned to his classes at Medford High, where he is a senior, after a week with the grippie.

Edward Brooks of Homer circle, a teacher at Medford High spent the weekend in New York city.

BOWLERS ON TEACHERS' TEAM MAKING STRONG BID FOR LEAGUE SUPREMACY

Led By Capt. Phil Gallivan, Teachers Have Herbert L. Collins, Art Terrill, Bud Stillman, Paul McNulty and Bill Dahill—City Bowling Championship Starts Saturday Night At Hillside Alleys—Brady High Man In City League Individual Averages With Five Tied For Second

The Teachers' team, now occupying third place in the City Bowling League, evidently have in mind bettering their position over last year, when they finished in fourth place at the end of the season. Recently they established the high team 3 string record of 1571 which shows they are "hitting on all eight."

Practically the same five men have been carrying the team along all season and among them are names familiar to all sports fans. First of all there is Herbert "Hubba" Collins, Supervisor of Athletics in the Medford Schools who finds time to keep his pin boys on the jump with his speed ball. His average to date is 97, enough to him near the top.

Popular Arthur Terrill, former Medford High school and Tufts College all-around star hits the maples for an average of almost 95. "Bud" Stillman, basketball luminary and "sneak-ball" artist who, when he doesn't oversleep can hit the pins with the best of them, leads down seventh place in the league standing with an even 100 average.

"Phil" Gallivan, captain of the team, is at present boasting of a 101 average and is in third place, right up with the leaders.

"Grand Slam" McNulty

Hard-working Paul McNulty another ex-Medford High star, is always there when the team needs him the most. Has an average of 97 now, but says "a grand slam" will be all he'll need to put him higher. "Bill" Dahill, the popular lead-off man, is enjoying his best season and gets a great "kick" out of the game. He averages 93.

This team has been a member of the City Bowling League ever since it started and has always been up with the leaders. The Teachers enjoy bowling and take this form of sport to keep in condition.

While on the subject of bowling, Harry Eremian's City Champs Bowling Tournament gets underway this Saturday night at the Hillside Alleys. To date the entries have been slow. Any Medford bowler interested in competing for the championship of the city has until Saturday evening at 8 o'clock to sign up.

40 Or More Expected

The tourney will extend over a period of possibly three weeks, the bowling being done on Saturday evenings. The only requirement of the competitors is that each entry roll three qualifying strings before Saturday evening. About 30 bowlers have already made known their intention to roll and it is expected that a total number of 40 or more men will toe the mark when the first round gets started.

Those who have already entered are: Joe Rubino, Guy Ferri, Joe Sharrillo, Bill Santosuosso, Nick Sarno, Dick Coss, Dr. Philip Farrell, Musty Kertzman, Charlie MacIver, Dr. Henry Vinberg, Gene Sweeney, Bill Joy, Harold Leahy, Joe Gilligan, Marshall of the "Tigers," Ben Brady, Gene O'Brien, W. Perry, Leonard Keefe, Sherman Allen, Eddie Spellman, Louis Dodsworth, Mar-

DEWEY ROMANO AND DELL I'SOLA READY FOR THEIR GRUDGE FIGHT

Glenwood

The grudge fight between Red Dell I'Sola and Louis "Dewey" Romano, two local pugilists, did not come off at the entertainment and boxing program held by the Medford Lodge of Elks last week but as the plans are now, these two scrappers will probably come together in some three or four weeks at a later program of the Elks.

The entire affair started when Dell I'Sola, 147-pound boxer who has a fine record to his credit, publicly challenged Dewey Romano to a fight in order that they may settle their grievance. Dell I'Sola's challenge was immediately accepted by Romano on Tuesday last and it was thought the boys might come together at the Elks' show. But there was not enough time for the boys to train, so the bout was postponed.

Records of Each

Dell I'Sola boasts a record of 12 knockouts, five decisions and no defeats. Among his victims are: Young Indrisano of East Boston, Johnny Rossi and Gene Shucro, all exceptional middleweights. He trains regularly at Buckley's Gym in Boston.

While Romano's record is not so impressive, he has two knockouts and 14 decisions to his credit. He has been defeated twice. Among those Romano has beaten are Frankie Gallo of White Plains, N. Y., Paul McNeil, Mike O'Reilly of Manchester, N. H., Tony Robertson, Ricco Ermini, Ralph Morgan, former State 126-pound champion. He has lost to Joe Geneo and was knocked out by Abe Denner. His fighting weight is 126 pounds.

Both lads are South Medford boys and the coming scrap has created unusual interest in boxing circles in the southern section of the city.

—Yesterday's bulletin carried a congratulatory message from Headmaster Ralph L. Kendall to the members of the various athletic teams, which experienced a successful weekend.

—Robert Burden a member of the Sophomore class has been added to the list of members of the cabinet of the Sophomore class. He was appointed by President Frank Daly.

The suggestion of wearing caps and gown was defeated, almost unanimously. The members of the track team which won the Northeastern Track meet were introduced to the class.
